

Tuition Payment Procedure for Repeated Courses

The retaking of a course is determined by the grade the student receives; see the AUA Grade Policy at <http://policies.aua.am/#?id=483>.

Students pay for retake course(s) during the term they are enrolled in such course(s). This payment is in addition to the regular tuition they pay for their study during that term.

The retake course fee is calculated per credit unit of the retaken course.

For graduate students, the per-credit fee for each retake course is the same as that set for non-degree students in the same degree program at the time the student signed his/her latest Education Contract or any amendments to it.

For undergraduate students, effective Summer 2015, the per-credit fee for each retake course is 1/30 of the applicable annual tuition fee for the student's program as set in his/her Education Contract or any amendments to it.

Tuition assistance and/or scholarship awards do not apply to the fee for retake courses. The student must pay the per-credit fee for the retake course regardless of any scholarship award.

In case the retake course(s) does not carry credit, the student should check with the Office of the Registrar to determine the fee to be paid.
